

At birth your children are filled with possibilities.

It is not your job to limit these possibilities.

*They will discover on their own
what is and is not possible.*

It is your job to help them stay open to the marvelous mysteries of life.

William Martin