

Strategy is a set of choices we make — long term choices — to distinguish ourselves from our competitors.

That's what it's all about.

It defines how we are going to compete differently and it also clearly articulates the competitive advantages that we seek to create and use in order to win.

Michael Porter

1947 -